ITTI Opens New Branch Office in London, England

Thursday: October 1, 2009

LONDON, ENGLAND - - ITTI Company Ltd, one of America's leading frequency control product, is pleased to announce the opening of new branch office in London. This new ITTI London branch will better serve customers in Europe with local engineering and sales support.

ITTI's new address in London is Gainsborough House, 81 Oxford Street, London W1D 2EU, United Kingdom. The main telephone number is 44 (0) 207 903 5343 and the main FAX number is 44 (0) 207 022 8688.

The new location continues the Company's planned expansion of its branch office network, which now includes six offices in the United States, Hong Kong, China, Japan, Korea Taiwan and Singapore. Each of the offices is capable to provide customer support and is fully equipped with testing instruments.

The new ITTI London office is the first branch established in the greater London area and the seventh international. The Company will continue to evaluate potential branch locations in both new and existing markets.

“Our headquarter has more than doubled in size last years, and our new branch accommodates our rapid expansion,” said Lina Wong, general manager of ITTI
